SILK

They say that opportunity knocks at everyone's door at some time, and this time it was at our door. One of the largest silk importing houses in this country just received a late shipment of silks and put them on the market at about half price, and having had the good fortune to have the ready cash we bought a line of new and fancy patterns, and in turn will give you the opportunity of sharing our saving.

The silks we are offering at 59c. a yard, are retailed all over the country at $1.00 to $1.25, and are well worth it. But owing to the late arrival of the goods, this CASH PRICE was made to unload them.

Remember This Silk Sale Starts Saturday Morning
